Defendants

Notice to Stephanie Galbraith Moore on Lack of Rule 26(a)(1) Initial Disclosures

Comes now, Ralph Kermit Winterrowd 2nd ("Winterrowd") with this Notice to Stephanie Galbraith Moore ("Moore") on Lack of Rule 26(a)(1) Initial Disclosures.

The following items have not been provided to Winterrowd by Moore under the Defendants' Rule 26(a)(1) Initial Disclosures, to wit:

1. Documents identified as RW1 through RW 171 by Moore.
2. The complete unedited tape of the traffic stop.
3. All of the memos, papers, videos, and other documents concerning Winterrowd that the parties listed below have used in this instant Case and against Winterrowd leading up to the excessive force by Nelson and others.

3:02-cv-00097 JKS

4. The APSIN information on danger warning put into the computer with parties identified that entered same, reason for entry and text of same.
5. The party that Trooper Brad L. Nelson was talking to when I was in his trooper car has not been identified, the cellular records and other communication that Trooper John Cyr had as I was proceeding peacefully into Wasilla close to Cyr.
6. All of the cellular and tape records of all of the parties in this instant case have not been provided.
7. All of the incidents, reports, evaluations, and plus incidents of other excessive force for each of the defendants has not been provided.
8. All of the qualifications of each of the defendants has not been provided as to training, Oath of Office as public Officers, Civil Commissions, Trooper graduation documents and training, the Use of Force in this instant Case, the rules of engagement in this instant case, the rules of used when attempting to drive Winterrowd off of the road concerning a mere purported traffic stop, the legal duty and probable cause for traffic stop.
9. The documents that support the lack of prosecution, the towing documents and authority for same of Winterrowd's private property.
10. The insurance policies that cover the Troopers, noting that Winterrowd has filed in a separate document wherein the Public Safety Commissioner is mandated by Alaska Statute to provide an Official Bond for all troopers. Moore states that no insurance agreements are relevant, which isn't correct.
